About Coastal Alabama Community College

Coastal Alabama Community College was formed in January 2017 as a result of the consolidation of Faulkner State Community College, Alabama Southern Community College and Jefferson Davis Community College. Coastal has nine campuses in Alabama: Bay Minette, Fairhope, Gulf Shores, Atmore, Brewton, Gilbertown, Jackson, Monroeville and Thomasville. The college also has six additional instructional sites.

Coastal boasts the lowest tuition in Alabama, and continues to grow its reputation for workforce development programs.

Coastal’s Registered Nursing Program in Bay Minette and Fairhope has been ranked number one in Alabama of all four-year and two-year Nursing programs. The college’s Culinary Arts Program was ranked one of the top 20 culinary programs in the nation.

Coastal also offers a one-of-a-kind Animation and Visual Effects program at its Fairhope Campus, using software equivalent to that used by industry professionals.

Recently, Coastal began offering programs in Aviation, such as Airframe, Avionics and Powerplant Technology. These programs are at the Alabama Aviation Center at Brookley Field in Mobile and the Academy at the Fairhope Airport.

Coastal is accredited to offer Associate degrees in Arts, Science and Applied Science. Coastal offers athletics programs in Basketball, Baseball, Softball, Volleyball, Golf, Tennis and Cheerleading.

Coastal provides on-campus housing and intercollegiate athletics. The college has 3 athletics programs – the Sun Chiefs in Bay Minette, the Eagles in Monroeville and the Warhawks in Brewton. Coastal’s Cheerleading has placed nationally several years in a row.

Coastal also promotes cultural experiences for students such as hosting the Alabama Writers Symposium.

Students have many opportunities to develop their leadership skills and to network at Coastal with a large variety of social and academic organizations, such as Ambassadors and the Student Government Association. The college also schedules beach trips, dances and bonfires.
Coastal Alabama Community College serves more than 7,422 students annually across nine campuses. This presidency provides an excellent leadership opportunity for a well-experienced administrator who is committed to successfully preparing students for career paths that meet the area’s growing economic and workforce development needs.
